MAY 11, 2022 - THE CONTEST - 9:30AM-3:00PM

On Saturday, May 11th, 2022 the Bristow Tabouleh Fest will hold its very own chalk art contest.

The contest is a fun and exciting opportunity for artists to showcase their talent. Artists will be provided with a designated space to create their artwork. The contest is open to all ages and skill levels. Registration is required and a fee of $15 is required. Registration forms and fees can be mailed to Bristow Historical Society or dropped off at Bristow Train Depot and Museum.

Artists will each be provided their own designated, large, sectioned square of Bristow's Main Street.

Judging begins at 3:00 pm

1ST PLACE: $100 2ND PLACE: $50 3RD PLACE: $25

CHECK-IN

Check-in begins 9:15 am, the morning of the contest, at the Chalk Art Information Booth where artists will receive their chalk space number. Chalk will be provided, though some may wish to bring their own supplies. Everything must be washable, no permanent mediums allowed. Artists may begin work no earlier than 9:30 am.

Check-in closes at 10:15 am, unclaimed chalk spaces will be forfeited.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

All artists are expected to produce unique and original, non-copy written works. All subjects will be judged based on creativity, originality and quality; all judge decisions are final. All works are expected to be produced solely by the applicant, no group works are allowed. Mechanical devices, such as projectors, to improve quality are prohibited. Artists will only be allowed the time from 9:30 am to 3:00 pm to complete their art. Contestants must be present during judging to be eligible for prizes.

I, the applicant and chalk artist, certify and agree that I have read, understand and will abide by all rules and regulations of the Bristow Tabouleh Fest Chalk Art Contest. I further certify that my chalk art will be my own work and idea. It will not be reproduced from a published piece of art or copyright-protected work. Furthermore, I certify that I, the chalk artist, will produce my chalk art alone and will not use mechanical devices such as projectors or anything of the like as stated in the rules.

I certify that my art will not be permanent and will be washed away when the contest is complete. I certify that I will only use washable chalk and/or chalk paint for my artwork. I understand that the Bristow Tabouleh Fest Chalk Art Contest - including staff members and contest representatives are not responsible for loss, theft, damage, or repair of supplies, work, or any property of the artists.

I hereby understand that if I am not checked in by 10:15 am at the Chalk Art Information Booth, I will forfeit my designated chalk art space. I hereby understand that my work will be judged on creativity, quality and originality in relation to the stated theme; all judges decisions are respected and final. I understand this is a family event and all inappropriate images, such as nudity or violence, are prohibited.

I hereby understand that in order to be eligible for a prize, I MUST be present during judging at 3:00 pm. I understand that if I am an award winner and am not present, the prize will be passed down to the next eligible artist.

I hereby understand that a $15 entry fee is due by May 5th along with my registration form in order to participate. I understand there are no refunds, no exceptions.

I hereby understand that my designated time limit to complete my art is from May 11th, 2022 9:30am to May 11th, 2022 3:00 pm.

I hereby grant the Bristow Tabouleh Fest Chalk Art Contest permission to display my chalk work as well as take photographs for future advertising, publishing and posting.
